

Midterm Project Presentation: Evaluation Report

Students:

Topic:

Content (8 points)

Does the presentation clearly convey the contribution and results of the paper? Are the most important points emphasized and explained well? Do the presenters appear to have a full understanding of the material being presented?

Comments:

Organization (6 points)

Does the presentation have a clear direction, with an introduction and a set of conclusions? Are the results placed in the context of their financial applications? Does the presentation follow a logical order, or does it jump haphazardly between different topics?

Comments:

Visual Aids (6 points)

Evaluation of the quality of the slides. Are figures used effectively? Are the slides helpful and easy to read/understand? Are they too dense with text and/or formulas?

Comments:

Presentation Style (6 points)

Do the presenters speak clearly and audibly, and face the audience? Do they use the visual aids effectively? Do they avoid excessive reading from the slides?

Comments:

Responses to Questions (4 points)

Do the presenters display an understanding of the project material in answering the questions? Do they answer the questions that are asked?
